

Contact: Contact: Toni Slaton
(800) 272-7467, ext. 239
tslaton@amionline.org
www.amionline.org

For Release: News Bulletin AMI-19
Oct. 8, 2008

AMI Announces 2008 Zurich “High Octane” Scholarship Recipient

Bedford, Texas, Oct. 8, 2007 — The Automotive Management Institute (AMI), in conjunction with Zurich, formerly Universal Underwriters Group, recently announced Chelsea Lipetzky, assistant service consultant, Werner’s Mastertek, Aurora, Colo., as the recipient of the Zurich “High Octane” Scholarship. The scholarship recognizes a management-oriented member of the Automotive Service Association (ASA) Mechanical Division. The recipient receives $1,000 to be applied toward expenses to attend AMI seminars offered during the Congress of Automotive Repair and Service (CARS) in Las Vegas, Nov. 5-8.

Lipetzky is new to the automotive service industry and is currently working on completing the necessary requirements to earn the Institute’s Accredited Automotive Manager (AAM) designation.

“I am honored to receive this award and grateful for this learning opportunity that will give me a great advantage in achieving my career goals,” said Lipetzky.

AMI was established to answer the demand for continuing education tailored specifically for the business needs of the automotive service industry. The Institute offers the Accredited Automotive Manager (AAM) designation, the first business management accreditation exclusively for the automotive service professional. To date, AMI programs have attracted more than 168,000 enrollments throughout North America. AMI is a not-for-profit educational foundation to which tax-deductible contributions can be made. For more information about the Institute, its curriculum, or EXCEL, please contact AMI at (800) 272-7467, ext. 241, or visit the AMI Web site at <http://www.amionline.org>.

Zurich, a leader in business insurance, provides property, casualty and specialty insurance and risk management solutions to businesses throughout the United States. To learn more, please visit www.zurichna.com.